

Knowledge and Skills

1. Developing and sustaining foundational language skills: listening, speaking, discussion, and thinking--oral language. The student develops oral language through listening, speaking, and discussion. The student is expected to:
 - A. listen actively to interpret verbal and non-verbal messages, ask relevant questions, and make pertinent comments;
 - B. follow, restate, and give oral instructions that include multiple action steps;
 - C. give an organized presentation employing eye contact, speaking rate, volume, enunciation, natural gestures, and conventions of language to communicate ideas effectively; and
 - D. work collaboratively with others to develop a plan of shared responsibilities.
2. Developing and sustaining foundational language skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking--beginning reading and writing. The student develops word structure knowledge through phonological awareness, print concepts, phonics, and morphology to communicate, decode, and spell. The student is expected to:
 - A. demonstrate and apply phonetic knowledge by:
 - i decoding palabras agudas, graves, and esdrújulas (words with the stress on the antepenultimate, penultimate, and last syllable and words with the stress on the syllable before the antepenultimate);
 - ii using orthographic rules to segment and combine syllables, including diphthongs and formal and accented hiatus;
 - iii decoding and differentiating meaning of word based on the diacritical accent; and
 - iv decoding words with prefixes and suffixes;
 - B. demonstrate and apply spelling knowledge by:
 - i spelling words with more advanced orthographic patterns and rules;
 - ii spelling palabras agudas, graves, and esdrújulas (words with the stress on the antepenultimate, penultimate, and last syllable) with a prosodic or orthographic accent;
 - iii spelling palabras sobresdrújulas (words with the stress on the syllable before the antepenultimate syllable) with a prosodic or orthographic accent;
 - iv spelling words with diphthongs and hiatus; and
 - v marking accents appropriately when conjugating verbs in simple and imperfect past, perfect, conditional, and future tenses; and
 - C. write legibly in cursive.
3. Developing and sustaining foundational language skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking--vocabulary. The student uses newly acquired vocabulary expressively. The student is expected to:
 - A. use print or digital resources to determine meaning, syllabication, pronunciation, and word origin;
 - B. use context within and beyond a sentence to determine the relevant meaning of unfamiliar words or multiple-meaning words;
 - C. identify the meaning of and use base words with affixes, including trans-, super-, anti-, semi-, -logía, -ificar, -ismo, and -ista and roots, including audi, crono, foto, geo, and terr;
 - D. identify, use, and explain the meaning of idioms, adages, and puns; and
 - E. differentiate between and use homographs, homophones, and commonly confused terms such as porque/porqué/por que, sino/si no, and también/tan bien.
4. Developing and sustaining foundational language skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking--fluency. The student reads grade-level text with fluency and comprehension. The student is expected to use appropriate fluency (rate, accuracy, and prosody) when reading grade-level text.
5. Developing and sustaining foundational language skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking--self-sustained reading. The student reads grade-appropriate texts independently. The student is expected to self-select text and read independently for a sustained period of time.
6. Comprehension skills: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts. The student uses metacognitive skills to both develop and deepen comprehension of increasingly complex texts. The student is expected to:
 - A. establish purpose for reading assigned and self-selected texts;
 - B. generate questions about text before, during, and after reading to deepen understanding and gain information;
 - C. make, correct, or confirm predictions using text features, characteristics of genre, and structures;

- D. create mental images to deepen understanding;
 - E. make connections to personal experiences, ideas in other texts, and society; (F) make inferences and use evidence to support understanding;
 - G. evaluate details read to determine key ideas;
 - H. synthesize information to create new understanding; and
 - I. monitor comprehension and make adjustments such as re-reading, using background knowledge, asking questions, and annotating when understanding breaks down.
7. Response skills: listening, speaking, reading writing, and thinking using multiple texts. The student responds to an increasingly challenging variety of sources that are read, heard, or viewed. The student is expected to:
 - A. describe personal connections to a variety of sources, including self-selected texts;
 - B. write responses that demonstrate understanding of texts, including comparing and contrasting ideas across a variety of sources;
 - C. use text evidence to support an appropriate response;
 - D. retell, paraphrase, or summarize texts in ways that maintain meaning and logical order;
 - E. interact with sources in meaningful ways such as notetaking, annotating, freewriting, or illustrating;
 - F. respond using newly acquired vocabulary as appropriate; and
 - G. discuss specific ideas in the text that are important to the meaning.
 8. Multiple genres: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts--literary elements. The student recognizes and analyzes literary elements within and across increasingly complex traditional, contemporary, classical, and diverse literary texts. The student is expected to:
 - A. infer multiple themes within a text using text evidence;
 - B. analyze the relationships of and conflicts among the characters;
 - C. analyze plot elements, including rising action, climax, falling action, and resolution; and
 - D. analyze the influence of the setting, including historical and cultural settings, on the plot.
 9. Multiple genres: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts--genres. The student recognizes and analyzes genre-specific characteristics, structures, and purposes within and across increasingly complex traditional, contemporary, classical, and diverse texts. The student is expected to:
 - A. demonstrate knowledge of distinguishing characteristics of well-known children's literature such as folktales, fables, legends, myths, and tall tales;
 - B. explain the use of sound devices and figurative language and distinguish between the poet and the speaker in poems across a variety of poetic forms;
 - C. explain structure in drama such as character tags, acts, scenes, and stage directions;
 - D. recognize characteristics and structures of informational text, including:
 - i the central idea with supporting evidence;
 - ii features such as insets, timelines, and sidebars to support understanding; and
 - iii organizational patterns such as logical order and order of importance;
 - E. recognize characteristics and structures of argumentative text by:
 - i identifying the claim;
 - ii explaining how the author has used facts for or against an argument; and
 - iii identifying the intended audience or reader; and
 - F. recognize characteristics of multimodal and digital texts.
 10. Author's purpose and craft: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts. The student uses critical inquiry to analyze the authors' choices and how they influence and communicate meaning within a variety of texts. The student analyzes and applies author's craft purposefully in order to develop his or her own products and performances. The student is expected to:
 - A. explain the author's purpose and message within a text;
 - B. analyze how the use of text structure contributes to the author's purpose;
 - C. analyze the author's use of print and graphic features to achieve specific purposes;

- D. describe how the author's use of imagery, literal and figurative language such as simile and metaphor, and sound devices achieves specific purposes;
 - E. identify and understand the use of literary devices, including first- or third-person point of view;
 - F. examine how the author's use of language contributes to voice; and
 - G. explain the purpose of hyperbole, stereotyping, and anecdote.
11. Composition: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts--writing process. The student uses the writing process recursively to compose multiple texts that are legible and uses appropriate conventions. The student is expected to:
 - A. plan a first draft by selecting a genre for a particular topic, purpose, and audience using a range of strategies such as brainstorming, freewriting, and mapping;
 - B. develop drafts into a focused, structured, and coherent piece of writing by:
 - i organizing with purposeful structure, including an introduction, transitions, and a conclusion; and
 - ii developing an engaging idea reflecting depth of thought with specific facts and details;
 - C. revise drafts to improve sentence structure and word choice by adding, deleting, combining, and rearranging ideas for coherence and clarity;
 - D. edit drafts using standard Spanish conventions, including:
 - i complete simple and compound sentences with subject-verb agreement and avoidance of splices, run-ons, and fragments;
 - ii irregular verbs;
 - iii collective nouns;
 - iv adjectives, including those indicating origin, and their comparative and superlative forms;
 - v conjunctive adverbs;
 - vi prepositions and prepositional phrases and their influence on subject-verb agreement;
 - vii pronouns, including personal, possessive, objective, reflexive, prepositional, and indefinite;
 - viii subordinating conjunctions to form complex sentences;
 - ix capitalization of initials, acronyms, and organizations;
 - x punctuation marks, including commas in compound and complex sentences, em dash for dialogue, italics and underlining for titles and emphasis, and quotation marks for titles; and
 - xi correct spelling of words with grade-appropriate orthographic patterns and rules; and
 - E. publish written work for appropriate audiences.
 12. Composition: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts--genres. The student uses genre characteristics and craft to compose multiple texts that are meaningful. The student is expected to:
 - A. compose literary texts such as personal narratives, fiction, and poetry using genre characteristics and craft;
 - B. compose informational texts, including brief compositions that convey information about a topic, using a clear central idea and genre characteristics and craft;
 - C. compose argumentative texts, including opinion essays, using genre characteristics and craft; and
 - D. compose correspondence that requests information.
 13. Inquiry and research: listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking using multiple texts. The student engages in both short-term and sustained recursive inquiry processes for a variety of purposes. The student is expected to:
 - A. generate and clarify questions on a topic for formal and informal inquiry;
 - B. develop and follow a research plan with adult assistance;
 - C. identify and gather relevant information from a variety of sources;
 - D. understand credibility of primary and secondary sources;
 - E. demonstrate understanding of information gathered;
 - F. differentiate between paraphrasing and plagiarism when using source materials;
 - G. develop a bibliography; and
 - H. use an appropriate mode of delivery, whether written, oral, or multimodal, to present results.
